General conditions

1. The licensee must not buy or sell native animals other than the birds the licensee is authorised to buy and sell under this licence.
2. The licensee must not buy, sell or trade in native animals on any premises that are not registered premises.
3. The licensee must only acquire a bird from a person who is licensed to keep that species of bird.
4. The licensee must sight a customer's licence to keep birds before selling a bird to them.

Record keeping conditions

5. The licensee must keep at the registered premises an accurate and up-to-date record of all acquisitions (including purchase and breeding), disposals (including sales, deaths and escapes) and movements (including for veterinary treatment) of birds held under this licence. The record must include:
 - a) date of acquisition, disposal or movement of birds
 - b) species and number of birds acquired, disposed of or moved
 - c) name and licence number of the person from whom the birds have been acquired and to whom the birds have been disposed of, or moved to

- d) method by which each individual bird has been acquired or disposed of (e.g. purchased, bred, returned by customer or sold).
- 6. The licensee must provide to the Wildlife Team, National Parks and Wildlife Service on behalf of the Secretary a copy of the records required by clause 5, in an approved electronic format or in a paper animal record book, on 1 July each year and/or at the expiry or cancellation of this licence, or to a NPWS officer when requested.
- 7. When a bird is purchased from the licensee the purchaser must be offered a copy of the DPI Animal Welfare Code of Practice No 4 - Keeping and Trading of Birds.

Warning: It is a licensee's responsibility to ensure that they are familiar with any other statutory or regulatory provisions relevant to this licence such as local council, building and health requirements and codes of practice under the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979. On the expiration of your licence the onus is on you, the licensee to renew. While the Department forwards licence renewal notices to licensees, it will not be responsible for the non-receipt of such a notice.
